

Fun Finds - Rock Paper Scissors

---

Banner Year

Sacramento mom of two, Megan Nelson crafts whimsical birthday banners in bright colors and satin ribbon that will really get the party started. One of her recent creations was a gift for celebrity mama Giada De Laurentiis! The bunting style can be personalized and is weighty enough to use year after year and for multiple children.

($25.00) etsy.com/shop/EmbellishedPaper

Bewitching Book

Murphy and the Magical Hat by local author and mom of two Kate David is inspired by the author's own daughter, Murphy. The story invites children to learn to turn disappointment into a positive experience. The "magical hat" in this case is the power of imagination, which can take a little girl's sadness in a rainy day and turn those tears into joy! ($17) Amazon.com

Cut-Ups

Plunk these Mala craft scissors down on the kitchen table with paper and glue for hours of indoor, artsy fun. Toddlers to grade-schoolers, and both righties and lefties can precisely cut zigzags and straight lines with abandon. Designed for children, these scissors are sturdy and safe—so that little fingers don't get ouchies! ($3.99) Ikea.com

-Lisa Thibodeau